Experience Virtuoso Violin with Cuffaro and Tartaglione

Gaithersburg, MD – (January 4, 2019) Gaithersburg's Arts on the Green continues its engaging concert series into the new year with Virtuoso Violin, featuring Alessandra Cuffaro and Simeone Tartaglione, on January 26, 2019, at 8 p.m. at the Arts Barn. Admission is $25, $15 for youth ages 18 and younger.

Renowned violinist Alessandra Cuffaro plays an exciting program of Paganini, Kreisler and Sarasate. She has received worldwide acclaim as the first Italian woman to perform all 24 of Paganini's Capricci, a collection of exceedingly difficult violin pieces, in one concert. Cuffaro is recognized as one of the most prominent Italian American performers of our time and she plays alongside her husband, pianist and conductor Simeone Tartaglione.

Attendees are invited to come early and enjoy wine by the glass, beer, and non-alcoholic beverages in a bistro setting. The Arts Barn Pub is open one hour before the show and during intermission.

Enjoy authentic music and lively conversation as well as special workshops before select performances. Next in the Arts Barn music series, the New Orchestra of Washington performs Schumann and Brahms on February 14 at 8 p.m. at Kentlands Mansion. The series is sponsored by Hampton Inn and Suites.

The Arts Barn, 311 Kent Square Road, and Kentlands Mansion, 320 Kent Square Road, are Arts on the Green, the City of Gaithersburg's home for the performing and visual arts. Patrons at both venues enjoy a wide range of quality theater, music and art programs.
